- 1.06 This policy is binding on all personal information that is provided directly to the Peterborough Humane Society or through generic forms or processes under our auspices.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.01 All employees at one time or another may receive personal, privileged and/or confidential information which may concern other employees, company operations or clients, donors, and volunteers. The purpose of this policy is to preserve the privacy of employees, clients, donors and volunteers and Peterborough Humane Society, by outlining employee obligations and procedures for dealing with personal, privileged and/or confidential information.

All Staff at one time or another may receive personal, privileged and/or confidential information which may concern other Staff, company operations or clients, donors, and volunteers. The purpose of this policy is to preserve the privacy of Staff, clients, donors and volunteers and PHS, by outlining staff obligations and procedures for dealing with personal, privileged and/or confidential information.

Under the federal Privacy Act, the Peterborough Humane Society is required to have a Privacy Policy to describe our use and protection of personal information. This will be posted to our web site and made available to all staff and volunteers. It covers collection of personal information through our online donations page and through our pledge card, for which we have responsibility, as well as govern our relationship with the general public.

3. POLICY SCOPE

- 3.01 All volunteers and staff or anyone else who is granted access to personal, privileged and/or confidential information are required to abide by the guidelines and regulations contained within this policy.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 4.01 All charities must be in compliance with PIPEDA and the accompanying legislation. The Privacy Officer and the PHS Board must review this policy and accompanying procedure annually to ensure compliance is met for current legislation as the government has the power to penalties on organizations that are determined to be non-compliant. For PHS staff, failure to comply with this policy could result in serious, negative consequences for the organization, therefore disciplinary measures up to and including just cause for termination of employment may be applied.

4.02 Employees are responsible for:

- a) keeping their own employee files current regarding name, address, phone number, dependents, etc.,
- b) being familiar with and following policies and procedures regarding personal information,
- c) obtaining the proper consents and authorizations prior to disclosure of personal, privileged and/or confidential information,

- d) immediately reporting any breaches of confidentiality to their Supervisor,
- e) keeping private passwords and access to personal, privileged and/or confidential data,
- f) explaining this policy to clients, donors and volunteers and referring them to Director of Development if necessary;
- g) relinquishing any personal, privileged, confidential or client information in their possession before or immediately upon termination of employment.

4.03 Supervisors are responsible for:

- a) obtaining consent to the collection and use of personal information from employees,
- b) ensuring policies and procedures regarding collection, use and disclosure of information of personal information are consistently adhered to,
- c) responding to requests for disclosure after the proper release is obtained;
- d) co-operating with Director of Development to investigate complaints or breaches of policy,
- e) obtaining from terminating employees prior to their termination any personal, privileged, confidential or client information in their possession,
- f) ensuring that disclosure of personal information or personal health information to a Third Party is done with the approval of the Board in order to minimize risk of non-compliance with applicable legislative or regulatory regimes;
- g) educating their staff and appropriate volunteers about the PHS Privacy and Personal Information Protection policy and procedure.

4.04 Human Resources and/or Payroll personnel are responsible for:

- a) ensuring that appropriate consents have been obtained from employees with respect to the collection and use of personal information,
- b) maintaining systems and procedures to ensure employee records are kept private;
- c) obtaining the proper consents and authorizations prior to disclosure of information contained in employee records,
- d) responding to employees' requests for access to their files,
- e) ensuring proper disposal of unnecessary files/information,
- f) maintaining separate files to ensure that personal health information is protected,
- g) ensuring that disclosure of personal information or personal health information to a Third Party is done with the approval of the Board in order to minimize risk of non-compliance with applicable legislative or regulatory regimes.

4.05 The Director of Development is responsible for:

- a) internal compliance with applicable policies or legislation,
- b) cooperating with supervisors, human resources and/or payroll personnel in developing internal policies for the collection, use and disclosure of personal information and personal health information of employees and clients,
- c) monitoring and responding to Third Party requests for personal information or personal health information,

- d) ensuring appropriate consents are obtained for the collection, use and disclosure of personal information and personal health information,
 - e) where collection, use or disclosure is permitted without prior consent, notifying individuals of the collection, use and disclosure of personal information and/or personal health information after such occurrence.
 - f) reporting to the Board on these responsibilities.
- 4.06 Peterborough Humane Society will not release Personal information to third parties unless;
- a) the person involved expressly authorizes in writing the appropriate PHS personnel to share the information,
 - b) sharing the information that is necessary to process a donation and/or to process a credit card transaction,
 - c) it is a risk situation as outlined in the PHS Confidentiality Policy,
 - d) the PHS is required by law to do so.

8. PROCEDURE

8.01 Employee Records

- (a) An employee's supervisor, higher level managers, human resources and payroll personnel shall have access to employee records containing personal information. An employee's supervisor, higher level managers, human resources and payroll personnel will have access to an employee's personal health information if either the Director of Operations, the Director of Development or the Office Manager determines that such access is permissible and necessary. Personal information and personal health information will not be disclosed outside of the organization without the knowledge and/or approval of the employee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Peterborough Humane Society will cooperate with law enforcement agencies and will comply with any court order or law requiring disclosure of personal information without the employee's consent.
- (b) Employees may request access to review their own file by making arrangements with the Office Manager. Employees shall provide at least twenty-four (24) hours notice to the Office Manager. Employees may obtain a copy of any document in their file which they have signed previously. No material contained in an employee file may be removed from the file. A representative of the Office Manager will be present during viewing of the file.
- (c) An employee may provide a written notice of correction related to any data contained in the employee's file. The notice of correction shall be provided to the Office Manager.
- (d) Employee requests for disclosure of their own personal information to Third Parties must be accompanied by a completed, signed and dated Authorization to Release Information form. Attachment A to this policy is used for this purpose. This form should also be used in dealings with insurance companies with respect to employee benefits and to provide confirmation of earnings to financial institutions for lending purposes.
- (e) Unless retention of personal information is specified by law for certain time periods, personal information that is no longer required to fulfill the identified purpose shall be destroyed, erased or made anonymous within 12 months after its use.

8.02 Client/Donor/Volunteer Information

- (a) Personal, privileged and/or confidential information about clients/donors/volunteers may only be collected, used, disclosed and retained for the purposes identified by Peterborough Humane Society as necessary.
- (b) Employees must ensure that no personal, privileged and/or confidential client/donor/volunteer information is disclosed without the client's consent and then only if security procedures are satisfied.
- (c) Client/donor/volunteer information is only to be accessed by employees with appropriate authorization.
- (d) Unless retention of personal information is specified by law for certain time periods, personal information that is no longer required to fulfill the identified purpose shall be destroyed, erased or made anonymous within 12 months after its use.

8.03 Notwithstanding Paragraphs 8.01(e) and 8.02(d) personal information that is the subject of a request by an individual or a Privacy Commission shall be retained as long as necessary to allow individuals to exhaust any recourse they may have under PIPEDA.

8.04 Concerns or complaints related to privacy issues must be made, in writing, to the Director of Development setting out the details of the concern or complaint. The Director of Development shall investigate the matter forthwith and make a determination related the resolution of the concern(s) or complaint(s).

8.05 No employee shall be disadvantaged or denied any benefit of employment by reason that Peterborough Humane Society believes that an employee will do anything referred to paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) below or by reason that an employee, acting in good faith and on the basis of reasonable belief;

- (a) has disclosed to the Privacy Commissioner of Canada that Peterborough Humane Society or any other person has contravened or intends to contravene a provision of PIPEDA related to the protection of personal information,
- (b) has refused or stated the intention of refusing to do anything that it is in contravention of a provision of PIPEDA related to the protection of personal information,
- (c) has done or stated an intention of doing anything that is required to be done in order that a provision of PIPEDA related to the protection of personal information not be contravened.

8.06 Breach of Confidentiality

It is a breach of confidentiality to:

- a) Discuss any confidential information within or outside the organization where it may be heard by individuals who are not authorized to have access to that information,
- b) Provide confidential information or records to unauthorized individuals,
- c) Leave confidential information in written form or displayed on a computer terminal in a location where it may be view by unauthorized individuals.

An employee who is found to be in breach of this policy will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge for cause.

A breach of the confidentiality obligation may be grounds for a board member to be removed as a director of the organization. A board member who breaches confidentiality may not be covered by the Peterborough Humane Society's insurance if s/he is sued for libel.

8.07 Donor Information

- a) Personal, privileged and/or confidential information about donors may only be collected, used, disclosed and retained for the purposes identified by PHS as necessary.
- b) Staff must ensure that no personal, privileged and/or confidential donors information is disclosed without the client's consent and then only if security procedures are satisfied.
- c) Donors information is only to be accessed by Staff with appropriate authorization.
- d) Unless retention of personal information is specified by law for certain time periods, personal information that is no longer required to fulfill the identified purpose shall be destroyed, erased or made anonymous within twelve months after its use.

Notwithstanding, information that is the subject of a request by an individual or a Privacy Commission shall be retained as long as necessary to allow individuals to exhaust any recourse they may have under PIPEDA.

8.08 Confidentiality Agreement

Staff, board members (and other volunteers as necessary) are required to sign a confidentiality agreement and are obligated to ensure that personal information to which they may have access remains confidential, is only used for the purposes for which it was collected, is not disclosed without authorization or used for personal gain.

8.09 Donation Materials

- a) All donation materials/forms shall include a reference to our Privacy policy:
